Respected Sir

Sub: Report of student's aid fund for the academic year 2019-20.

As per the given notice for the student's aid fund, we received 53 applications. The applicant students were called for the brief interview for which all the 53 students appeared before the committee. The committee members interacted with the said applicants to find out the genuineness of the case and found that all applicant students are really in need of the said aid fund. For the present year i.e 2019-20, college received Rs.25000 as Bank interest towards the students welfare fund. Hence committee recommends in providing a financial help. The detailed list of beneficiary students is given for your kind approval.

Respected Sir,

Sub: Report of student's aid fund for the academic year 2018 -19.

As per the given notice for the student's aid fund, we received 40 applications. The applicant students were called for the brief interview for which all 40 students appeared before the committee. The committee members interacted with said applicants to find out the genuineness of the case and found that all applicant students are really in need of the said aid fund. For the present year i.e 2018 -19, college received Rs.87500.00 as a Bank interest towards the students welfare fund. Hence committee recommends in providing a financial help of Rs.2500.00 to self-finance and Rs.2000.00 to B.com students. The detailed list of beneficiary students is given for your kind approval.

Respected Sir,

Sub: Report of student's aid fund for the academic year 2017-18.

As per the given notice for the student's aid fund, we received 19 applications. The applicant students were called for the brief interview for which 17 students appeared before the committee. The committee members interacted with said applicants to find out the genuineness of the case and found that around 13 applicant students are really in need of the said aid fund. For the present year i.e 2017-18, college received Rs.18800.00 as a Bank interest towards the students welfare fund. Since the applicants are really in need of some financial assistance, committee proposes to utilize part of the various fine collected from the students, this approximately comes to around Rs.13700.00. Hence committee recommends in providing a financial help of Rs.2500.00 to each below mentioned students. The detailed list of beneficiary students is given for your kind approval.
