Alumni Association Activities 2023-24

In September 2023, the formation of a new office bearers' committee for the Alumni Association was completed, and the registration process was successfully carried out. On the occasion of the Youth Festival, Mr. Nitin Yadav played a key role in guiding students for their Marathi and Hindi skits, as well as a mime performance. On 11th October 2023, in observance of International Girl Child Day, Mrs. Rupali Petkar Joshi conducted a session where she highlighted the importance of celebrating this day, particularly for girl children in rural areas and families still adhering to traditional beliefs. Later, on 7th November 2023, Mr. Chetan Phadtare provided guidance to nearly 106 students in filling out the online form for new voter card registrations.

On 9th September 2023, 28 alumni members were present in the College's Silver Jubilee function, making the event more memorable. Looking ahead, on 6th January 2024, Our alumni has organized a guest lecture on "Preparation for Interview and Internship," aimed at equipping students with valuable skills for their future careers and placement drive at the end of January 2024, providing students with exciting career opportunities. In March 2024, a blood check-up camp was conducted in collaboration with Life Tree Pathology, further contributing to the health and well-being of the community.
