Subject: Report of Mangrove Conservation Day-25 July 2023

Madam

The IQAC, NSS Unit and Paryawaran Dakshata Mandal, Dombivli celebrated Mangrove Conservation Day on Tuesday, 25 July 2023.

The objectives of this activity is to create awareness about Mangroves as a major carbon sequestration agent. Mangroves are useful for aquatic ecosystem and hence needs to protect it. This is highlighted by Mrs. Rupali Shaiwale, a program coordinator of Paryawaran Dakshata Mandal, Dombivli.

The students were asked to assemble at Satpool area of Dombivli west which is near Ulhas creek, having wide variety of mangroves.

Outcome of the activity: - 16 students successfully participated in the visit at Satpool area and have got insight about mangroves and even understood the reasons of mangrove degradation.

This is for your information.

Thank you

Yours faithfully
